

MYP Planner Initial Scope and Sequence Year 11 2011-12

Year Level	Unit 1: Humanities Skills	Unit 2 Local Area	Unit 3 Genocide in Rwanda	Unit 4 Hazards and Natural Disasters	Unit 5 The Economics of Aid	Unit 6 Introduction to Business and Management
AOI Focus	ATL	HI	C&S	Env	H&S	HI
Significant Concept		Context greatly affects human innovation, creation and development.	Colonialism changed communities and continues to influence them.	Extreme natural events impact different countries in different ways.	Giving aid is not always the right decision for a recipient country.	Mass media can influence and persuade decisions made by consumers.
MYP Unit Question	What are the skills I need for year 11 humanities	What are the challenges facing urban Hong Kong today? To what extent are planners and developers meeting the changing needs of the Hong Kong population?	Who is to blame for the genocide in Rwanda?	What are extreme natural events and why does the impact and management of these processes differ so much around the world?	Are charitable donations always the solution? What problems can arise from Aid donations?	What is an ethical product or service and how can it be marketed?
Type of Summative Assessment And assessed criteria		An evidence based evaluation of the government plans for the Kai Tak site B C D Forms part of the Exam	In class essay On who is most to blame for the Rwandan Genocide A B D Forms part of the Exam	Tectonics test A C Forms part of the Exam	In class summary on the economics of aid using Oxfam unwrapped. A C	Presentation of a Marketing Plan for an ethical service or product A C
Formative Assessment And assessed criteria		Urban transect fieldtrip report. A C D China Population Essay A B	Information Board illustrating Rwanda at a glance C D	Scattergraph assessment C News Report A D	The goat dilemma B

